

Cliffie Lee Curtis

October 21, 1925 - March 12, 2021

Cliffie Lee Curtis 95, was born to Parents Lee Elbert and Martha Alice (Kisor) Watkins on October 21, 1925 in Springdale Washington County, Arkansas. Cliffie married Mr. Calvin Leonard Curtis and lived a wonderful life raising their children between the states of Arkansas, California and finally settling in Texas. She was employed at TI in Sherman, Tx for many years until her retirement. Cliffie loved watching old westerns and wrestling. You could not tell her those body slams were fake. She spent her retirement in the kitchen cooking with all of her grandchildren. We all loved her gumdrop cookies and her famous cranberry sauce.

Cliffie is preceded in death by her husband Calvin, three sons; Michael Dean Sr., David Lee, and Reginald Eugene Curtis.

She is survived by her daughter Marilyn Kaye Curtis-Wood of Denison, Tx, son Michael Dean Jr, and wife Judy of Denison. Grandchildren, Deanna Britton, Stephen Stewart, Tamera Plemmons, Bryan J Curtis, John Stewart, Tresa Curtis, Shelly Evans, Dennis Wood, Justin Shelton, and Michael Dean Curtis 3. 17 great-grandchildren and 1 great great-grandchild.

“ Grandmommie used to spend a lot of time with us kids baking. We'd sit for hours watching Westerns with her eating buttermilk and cornbread. And by Gosh you better not have said a thing about WWE being fake. She just would not tolerate that nonsense. Growing up My siblings and I spent every day after school at her house and every weekend. Taking care of our animals, mowing, planting the pretty flowers she loved and talking about the red and blue birds she collected. Even when Alzheimer's reared its head she could tell you exactly where she got those birds. Grandmommie you are forever loved and missed. Say hi to daddy for us.
