“ I had my first "real" job with aunt Glenda. Cleaning hotel rooms and boy was she quick. :-) I felt like I was running a marathon & still couldn't keep up with her . She taught me the value of hard work, in which, I still carry that today. It has taken me to great lengths & many blessings!! Her door was always open with love & care. One life lost but MANY lives touched. Thank you Glenda, for teaching me what kind of Aunt I hope to be

“ I'll forever remember a conversation Glenda and I had of a story about always remembering keep your fork when out at a restaurant for dinner! She was in yellow and in a meeting that was about carrying a message of hope. We light a candle tomorrow for you and I'll always remember to keep that spark cause the best is yet to come! Until We see you again I'll keep your memory every time I grab my fork. "Keep your fork ... the best is yet to come."

“ Glenda was the best friend I've ever had. I love her very much . We did a lot of things together. We even got into a lot of mischief together. She is now with my husband. They were good friends now they can laugh about the silly things I do like they always did
