“ I am still in shock and my heart goes out to Kimberly and family. It was a pleasure to be able to work with Margaret for over 27 years at First National and First Security Bank. We also enjoyed many Razorback games together. I will cherish the memories and I think you would tell each one of us to live each day like it could be the last and don't take anything for granted. You will be missed. Judy McKinnon

“ I am stunned at the loss of this sweet lady. I got to know her at ACO functions and we shared so many things... banking careers, love of gardening, theater and for sure family. We had been texting recently about her planned trip to see her grandchildren in Pleasanton, CA, another shared interest as I used to live there. We talked about the lovely area and her travel plans for Christmas...to wear her N95 mask and get there safely. She just wanted to see the little ones so badly. I just can't believe she's going to miss this trip but know that she will forever be smiling down on her sweet family. My condolences and prayers for all.

“ I met Margaret through our daughters friendship. We spent a lot of time together raising our girls--Branson, ice skating in Tulsa, swimming, Birthdays, and many spend overs with lots of girls. I always felt confident that she had all the girls best interest at heart. I am thankful we had this time to make memories with our children and their friends. Kim , I am so sorry for your loss and our family will be thinking of your family. Just know this- you were loved and treasured by your Mom. She will be missed.

“ I am still in disbelief about this news. I worked with Margaret at First National Bank, she was my supervisor and just like everyone says - She ALWAYS had a smile! I know for certain she will be greatly missed. But I also believe she now has the privilege of celebrating Christmas with Jesus who is the reason for the season! My sincere thoughts and prayers for her family.

“ Margaret was a wonderful example of taking care of customers. I worked with her for almost 15 years at FNBS and participated in several volunteer activities outside of FNB including ACO and the CARE Group of FNB. I never knew how she would take my teasing but she never was mad at it - only smiling and laughing. I'll miss her smile and presence...

“ I love this picture of Margaret, it embodies her spirit. I will always remember the pride for Kim, happiness that Chris was part of their lives, and joy that she had for the grand babies! Her gentile smile and the sound of her voice will be forever present in my mind.
Heaven gained an angel. God's peace surround you.

“ I don't believe I ever saw Margaret without a smile on her face. One of the kindest, sweetest people I ever met. We at the ACO always knew we could count on her to help with the many, many events we had on our schedule. She will truly be missed by so many.

“ Even though I was not “her’s” Margaret always treated me like I was. I will never forget the time she camped out next to our tent in her car because she cared so much and wanted to protect us. She was always so thoughtful and showed all of us girls love no matter how silly we got. As a mother now, I can only hope & pray that I can be a mom like Margaret. Her kindness and wisdom will always be a model of a mother’s love.

“ I worked with Margaret for 30 years at First Security Bank / First National Bank of Springdale. Margaret was my go to person for questions at work and she was always willing to help out no matter what the situation. It would be impossible to replace her. Her years of experience and her level of detail that she held herself accountable to is uncommon in the workplace in this day and age. She will be missed.

“ I have had the privilege of working with Margaret and serving on a committee with her that brought us together several times of the year. When we first met, she became an immediate friend, and I always looked forward to seeing her at these meetings. She was such a sweet and kind person, yet very professional. I will miss our visits and our many phone calls. My prayers are with the family as they grieve this tragic loss. Suzann Floyd
