“ Loved the time as a kid spending time at the house on Rosiata Circle, always a fun time there. Then later visiting Sleepy Hollow, exploring the woods around there and fishing a perhaps off limits creek. The food and the love was always amazing. I'm very sad she's gone, but now they are all together again.

“ I will always remember going to her house in Mississippi and going fishing and playing cards and having fried eggplant with her. I will miss her and hope she is enjoying being when grandmother and the rest of the crew.
