“ I was a good friend of Al's when he had the steakhouse in Oskaloosa. My best friend worked there for him so I spent a lot of time there. Al was the greatest guy he was so good to everyone my girlfriend Jackie just loved him. I'm sure his family is going to really miss him I just feel so bad that he's gone by heartbreaking I did talk to her about the phone not too awful long ago so glad I did rest in peace Al. Carolyn and the family my heart goes out to you I'm so sorry this is happening you've got a lot of memories to treasure for sure I loved you all, hugs.

“ No matter what we ladies did or planned at their home Al always came by to speak to each of us. He was always smiling and friendly. Not that long ago so I know he was not feeling well but he came over to say hi and gave me some homemade bread. God broke the mold when Al was born. I will miss his kindness.
