

Aleta June Travis

November 3, 1966 - December 12, 2024

Aleta June Travis, a loving wife and proud mother, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, Dec. 12, at the age of 58.

Aleta was born on Nov. 3, 1966 in Hanford, California, to the late James Ray and Carol Johnson, and was a 1985 graduate of Springdale High School.

She loved riding on the back of the Harley with her husband Greg, the love of her life for 26 years, and was so proud of her son, Thomas Engles, and step-children Jeremy Travis and Jennifer Travis. Aleta never met a stranger and adored the German Shepherds she had throughout the years.

She loved concerts — particularly hair bands — the Arkansas Razorbacks, traveling, and excelling in the service industry, making sure those who encountered her were taken care of in the best possible way. Aleta had the highest of standards and it showed in how she lived her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Laura Bradford, and a step-father, Donald Green.

She is survived by her husband, Greg, son Thomas and girlfriend Cassey Swake, step-son Jeremy and wife Heather, step-daughter Jennifer and husband Rick Harvey, granddaughter Katelyn Travis, sister Christine Grossenbacher and husband Glenn, brother Jim Ray and his wife Cindy, uncle and aunts Ronnie Ray and Analita Ray and Delbert Ray and Karen Ray, her beloved German Shepherd, Rhea, and many cousins and friends.

Graveside service will be Thursday, December 19, 2024 at 1pm at Friendship Cemetery with Terry Hatfield officiating.

Visitation will be from Wednesday from 5-7pm at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.

Pallbearers will be Jeremy Travis, Thomas Engles, Mitch Price, Shane Macon, Craig Smith and Dale Land.
