“ It's been three years and I still miss you every day, you took me into your family when I was 15, you showed me what it was like to have a mom who loved you, I will forever be grateful to you for always being there love you to the Moon and back

“ It's been 10 months, but we still miss you mom and still hard to believe you are gone. You have always been miss feisty pants, and I love that about you. No teacher, school nurse or principle would call us in the office twice. Mom would stand up for her kids without question, no matter what....she attacked and ask questions later if anyone crossed our paths. We always felt safe and loved with mom in our corner. xoxoxoxo

“ I remember Alice as a sweet fun loving lady who enjoyed garage sales, flea markets and giving Fred a good laugh. She had a good eye for antiques and always had good advice to give you when you were hunting something special. Sandy and I are glad we got to know her. I know she's in Heaven looking down and smiling at Fred telling him not to worry. She will be missed by all.

“ I met this wonderful woman at age 15. She took me as a daughter. I was so blessed to have been a part of her and her family for over 40 plus year's. She is a kind and loving mom to everyone. Loves to read. Do puzzles and most of all she loved us all unconditionally. I will miss her so much I Love you Mom. Debbie
