“ Our prayers are with the family. It has been years since Lavon and I have seen Aunt Helen, Uncle Alvin, Ricky or Randy, but just know we are thinking about all of you at this time. From what we remember, Uncle Alvin cared a great deal about his family and we know he will be missed but not forgotten.

“ First-Class Father
Dad, I'm blessed to be your son
I knew it from the start.
You're a first-class father;
You're loving, kind, and smart.

You show me how to be a man
You help me, guide me, along the way.
You're strong, and yet you're gentle, too.
I hope I'm just like you, someday!

I will miss you, I LOVE you dad...

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family. Alvin was a very good grandfather to my son, Chad. So many good memories come to thought when I think of him like: For the first 3 years of Chads life Grandpa came every evening after work and took Chad in his arms and went and feed the cows. He took him on many camping trips to the Arkansas river and he was there when Chad caught his first fish. Chad was not his first grandchild, but he was the one who always tagged along with his Grandpa. There was always a special bond between them. Even after I was not part of the family, I always remained close to Alvin and Helen knowing how important it was for Chad to be close to his grandparents.

With Love,
