“ Dear Wayne and Julie, I haven't seen you two in several years now, but saw Amanda back in March or April I believe, a very pretty girl. She and my son, Andy were good friends for many years as they were growing up and we had Amanda at our house several times. She was always a sweet girl and I know she holds a special place in Andy's heart. Our family is praying for yours' especially during this trying time and we know God will bring you peace and comfort.

“ Like Jenny said everything happens for a reason. I am still trying to figure out what gods plans are but everyday you just have to know you and your family are in great hands. Heather and Amanda will always be watching over to protect you all. I am so blessed that I was able to see Amanda a couple of weekends ago. Just yet another reason why we should live everyday to our fullest. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and for those lives that Amanda touched.

Love

“ Julie and Wayne
I remember walking along the creek and over the dam at Devil's Den with Anamda, a beautiful child-- and just last year she came to the square dance reunion and I rushed to give her a big hug. What a joy she was. It is hard now, and the tears must flow, yet God can comfort, and I know He will as you face life and move on. I send my love.

“ Julie and Wayne,
I am so sorry to here about Amanda. When Missy and I saw you and her at Haps last week she was in such great spirits, other than having a bad cold and had been sick with a fever. There was a reason for us running into each other like that. To think it was the day before Heather?s birthday even. We had a wonderful conversation and things seem to be looking good for her. This may have been our way of ?Heather? letting me and Missy saying hi and bye to her so she can have her time with her now. Although we do not know the reasons for these things to happen, just know my little sister will take great care of her. She is in such wonderful hands, not that she wasn?t before. We just sometimes have to share our time with each other rather we are ready to or not. We love you guys so much and if you every need anything, we are just around the corner.
Love Always,
Jennifer, Taeyler, and Maecey Simmons-Corneslion
