“ I have known Angela for three years as well she was so amazing to my son, he adored her so very much me an Angela have always had great conversations she was always so pleasent gave me the greatest advice when I needed it she helped me through some tough times. When I was pregnant an I was taking her to work one morning she was asking if my daughter could have her name or can her name be apart of her. I said sure lets find a way to put it in there. Once I found out a way to put it in there I couldnt tell her but I know she knows :) she got her wish my daughters middle name is Angela'Nevaeh an I was so blessed to have the opporitunity to have had her in my life. Her memory lives on an I love an miss her so very much.
