

Angela Bishop

January 1, 2009

Angela Marie "Angie" Bishop, 54 of Lowell died Thursday, January 1, 2009 at her home. She was born July 6, 1958 in Evansville, Indiana to Gustave and Mary Klingler Wolf.

Angie graduated Valedictorian at Texarkana High School and as Salutatorian from the University of Arkansas School of Architecture. She worked as an architect for High-Jackson and Associates. She stopped working to raise her two sons.

She was a charter employee with the Lifeway Christian Bookstore in Rogers. She was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Lowell where she led various Bible Studies. She taught Vacation Bible School; she was an Awana leader and she sang in sign language with Hands of Praise. She was involved in mission trips. She was a leader in Bible Study Fellowship, she served as a children's leader and Substitute Teaching leader.

She was a regular volunteer at Poplar House Clinic, later Tree of Life Clinic in Rogers. She worked with her husband on the family farm.

Survivors include her husband Joe Bishop of the home to whom she married August 14, 1976; two sons Nelson Bishop and wife Amanda of Conway and Nathan Bishop and wife Melody of Ft. Worth, Texas; her mother Mary Wolf of Texarkana, Arkansas; three brothers Gus Wolf and wife Jean of Owings, Maryland, Norman Wolf and wife Cathy of Texarkana, Texas and Peter Wolf and wife Kecia of Texarkana, Arkansas; four sisters Darlene Redden and husband Joe of Texarkana, Arkansas, Deborah Handlen and husband Richard of Larkspur, California, Theresa Poff and husband Frank of Texarkana, Arkansas and Shirley Jaster of Texarkana, Texas; two grandchildren Callie Ann and Elliott Marie Bishop of Ft. Worth, Texas and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Monday, January 5, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. at First Baptist Church in Lowell with Rev. Gary Thomas and Rev. Ben Rowell officiating.

Burial will be in the Benton County Memorial Park in Rogers.

Visitation will be Sunday from 2 to 4pm at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church, 409 Johnson Ave., Lowell, Arkansas 72745 or Bible Study Fellowship International, 19001 Huebener Road, San Antonio, Texas 78258.

Tribute Wall

“ Angela Bishop

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM

“ Joe, Nelson, and Nathan, This is all such a shock to me, I hardly have words. My family and I send or deepest condolences to your family.. I will miss Angie with all my heart, and remember all those fond memories of Acteens, and bon Fires, and her sweet smiling face that was always glowing no matter what was going on. We truely have a wonderful angel watching over all of us. May God be with you all.

January 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Bro. Joe, Nelson and Nathan, My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Ms. Angie was a truly kind and sweet lady. I have so many memories of her growing up at FBC Lowell; VBS, Sunday School, Hands of Praise and of course all of the youth trips. She was always a person that I knew that I could talk to about anything. Angie made such a positive impact on my life. I hope that one day I can be the type of Christian woman that she was. She will be so very missed. I am so sorry that I am not able to be there. Amanda Worley-Hayes

January 05, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Always a lady. Always allowing Christ to shine through her life. We are honored to have known and been touched by Angie's life.

January 04, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Bishop and Wolf Families,

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Angie was one in a million! I feel very blessed to have known Angie. I treasure the wonderful memories of our friendship and "our family on 38th street". Angie will always hold a special place in my heart. Her smiles, hugs, and laughter. Remembering the ballgames in the field, trees never to tall to climb, gooseberries, burgers and fries on Saturday night, the Wild Wild West, then pancakes on Sunday mornings! I will always remember that smile! What a wonderful woman!

*My apologies for only being there in thoughts and prayers.
Hugs!
Patti*

January 04, 2009 at 12:00 AM