“ Randy, Anita, Janet and Families: Many memories of your Dad and Mom and how kind they were to my Grandmother, Mrs. Webb, who babysat so often for them. I even remember that they gave her "nylons" (now called hose!) from Lichlyters every year for Christmas! Beth and my Mom shared many New Year's Eve's together with a bunch of friends playing cards and ringing in the New Year. Beth was also kind and soft spoken, and loved her family so much! Ann was my first friend as a little girl and I remember her so well and still think of her so often! My Grandmother would hold Ann by the hours when she was so sick and pray for her and I would cry the entire time. Beth was the true example of a Godly woman who handled life with dignity and grace. Our prayers for you during this time! Linda and Doug Miller

“ Mrs. kimbrough was respected by me as a fifth grader all the way though until last week. She revealed the epitome of living God’s requests to its fullest! I don’t know how she did it all! She was a gracious person who we should all try to immulate!

“ I am so sad to hear this!! Your momma was one of the sweetest ladies I know. I remember hanging out at your house. She made the best cinnamon toast in the oven. I know your heart is hurting. Praying for God’s loving arms to comfort you today. Love, Holly Henry Meehan
