“ Despite her illness, Bette was a delight! She was hampered by her illness, but she never complained. She always smiled, and brightened when her children appeared. She faithfully attended our "Small Group" (Sunday School class) and church services. She will be missed, but we know where she now resides with her Savior and LORD.

“ I remember Bette as a loving and caring individual. She had a positive outlook on life and loving to everyone. I was blessed in two ways. 1) I got to meet her twice and 2) she is the mother of my loving daughter-in-law, Cheryl. Sleep well Bette and continue to watch over your children.
