“ Lori Gladstone My favorite Aunt! From my earliest memories she was the one who connected the family through her hospitality. I spent a summer vacuuming and dusting her home every day of our visit, and she paid me while my brother mowed lawns with Uncle Maurice. Truth, I would have rather mowed lawns! Lol! But being with her was a gift. She was the one who set the example as a woman entrepreneur at a time that was not so popular for women to do. Designing and sewing purses in her garage, opening a fruit and vegetable stand, and then jumping into the real estate arena. She was an inspiration to me. Her faith in Christ was so evident in her later years and the last visit with her in 2004. Life and the miles between are a regret, but the truth of knowing I will see her again is a great comfort! Rest in Peace sweet Aunt!

“ I am so thankful to God for Betty Galloway being a part of my life. I had the privilege of working for her for many years at Century 21 Galloway Realty. She was always composed, thoughtful of others before herself, gentle and kind and still a good business person. Truly, one of God's sweetest treasures on earth!
