“ *What a lovely lady she was. She will be missed by her family. I first met Aunt Betty at the Walker reunion. She was my husband's aunt (Billy Walker who was deceased on Feb.12,2016). I was always made to feel like part of the Walker family when Bill and I married. I loved all of his Aunts that I met; Aust Helen, Aunt Jackie and Aunt Tiny. Bill was the last one to pass out of his family, and I guess Aunt Betty was the last to pass out of her family, I guess Doug Walker, my son Billy Walker, Jr. and his son Austin Walker are the only men left with the Walker name. My condolences to her family; especially her husband who will feel empty without her, as I do without my Bill, but knowing he has a mansion that has been prepared for him gives me great comfort, as I know it will you.
Love Dolly Walker*

“ Uncle Fay, Denise, Chip and Families, we are so saddened by the loss of our Aunt Betty. Betty was loved by many and all of the Walker Family! Betty was always so caring and loving. I know that Beulah Mae and L.C. Are looking down today with sadness, also. We are thinking about you and praying that you will have comfort during your time of grief. Thinking of you all, Tricia and Lewis Walker

“ Fay, Denise, and Chip, We are so sorry for this unexpected loss, your mother was a wonderful lady, mother, and as we saw through our long association with her, the love of Fay's life. We remember many special things about her, but we always looked forward to seeing her bring her strawberry cake. We'll know we've made it to heaven, if she's waiting with one!. Russ, Sue & Family

“ Washington Irving wrote "There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition, and of unspeakable love" I know Betty only through Denise and Maggie -- and that is how I know she is beautiful. I offer my deepest sympathy to all the family in this time of great loss.
