

Betty Lou Hargrove

November 30, 1930 - February 21, 2014

Betty Lou Hargrove born November 30, 1930 and died February 21, 2014. She was the widow of William Hargrove to whom she was married 63 years.

She is survived by four daughters, Diane Harmon and son-in-law Tim Harmon, Donna Brooks, Linda Williams and son-in-law- Dr. Jerry Williams and Debra Armstrong, brother Don Cunningham and beloved (deceased sister) Bertha Mayes. Six grandchildren who she loved and adored especially Shannon Turner. Ten great grandchildren whom she was passionate about and made up a huge part of her life, Kaden and Kayli O'Brien and Nathan and Caleb Turner. Nephew Danny Malone, niece Patty Wilson and husband Adolph.

She worked as a volunteer at the Hospital Auxiliary for many years and was close to her co-workers. She was a very active, vibrant, extremely loving and caring friend and neighbor as well as a beautiful person. She was the BEST mother to ever grace this earth. She will sorely be missed and live in our hearts and souls for ever. She most assuredly is in the arms of the angels.

By her request no services will be held. All our Love through eternity. (The Three Musketeers)

“ Aunt Betty could paint your house or bake you a pie. She made a beautiful, loving home. She was truly one of a kind and we are blessed to call her aunt. We'll miss her forever and a day. She and Mom are dancing with the angels. Peace family! Love, Patty and Junior

“ I was always so proud of my Aunt Betty. That woman could make an oak tree laugh !! Next to my mom, she was the love of my life. While I am saddened that she is gone, I am over-joyed to know they are both together in Heaven now. Even so, there is an empty place in my heart for her. They just don't make folks like her anymore. To the entire family, especially Nini, I love you all very much.

“ To Betty's girls,
Our deepest sympathy.
Your Mother was a very special person and has been our privilege to know her and your Dad for many years. We worked together at the Thrift shop and shared many good times over the years. Betty and I shared many cups of coffee and exchanged many recipes, think of her whenever I get out a favorite!
She will be so missed but always remembered with love and kindness.
Would like to send a memorial gift in her name, do you have a preference?

DEAREST Jean, THANK YOU SO MUCH for your kind words! WE appreciate it more than you can know. She loved to give to her favorite charities which were: the police & veterans! She had sent donations to both charities just this month. Pls know-your friendship was more than enough to honor her memory. LV, Nini
