“ Almost all of my most cherished childhood memories include Betty, right front and center....There is no way to even be able to start listing all the wonderful times our family shared with her....She was the epitome of joyful living, kindness of spirit, abundant laughter, and that of a lady whom you knew our Lord Jesus Christ was the very center of herI love her dearly, as did my grandparents and my parents....She will be dearly missed, I know she is in heaven having a wonderful time with Ray, my Gram Steele and my dad; as well as many others.....A blessing to every life she touched.....
