“ Cathy, so sorry that I can't be there to help celebrate your fathers life and home going. Have thought often of him and tried to keep up through Hank. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. LaFerne and I will always treasure your kind visit to our home and your beautiful words of encouragement to us. May God richly bless you in this very challenging time.

“ Dear Aunt Leatha, Cathy and Nancy...as you comprehend this profound loss, let yourself cry knowing each tear is a note of love rising to the heavens. Hold tight to your memories for comfort. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. ?A human life is a story told by God.? And Uncle Bill will have plenty to tell. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. While we are mourning the loss of our dear sweet Uncle, others are rejoicing to meet him. I love you and I'm here if you need me...
