“ Clyde and Harvey, I'm so sorry to hear about her mother's passing. Just looking at her picture reminds me of what an elegant lady she was. I'm remembering my mom talking about her and your dad running around together when they were younger, and what good friends they were, especially since Clyde and I were born only a month apart. I think mom told me Blondell gave her some cup and saucer pieces for her collection that I may still have. I could be wrong, but that's what my feeble memory says. So now our parents are enjoying each other's company again. May they all rest in piece!
