“ He used to deliver Bunny Bread to my grandparents store (Bowen) in Nob Hill when I was little and he remembered the family. Everyone in the family called him Bunny Bob. He would have coffee in the mornings with my father Raymond "Buck" Wright. He was a great man and will be missed by all. Prayers are with you and your family.

“ Cousins Linda, Barbara and Susi-
We're so sorry to hear of the loss of your father. Uncle Bob was the last of my uncles and aunts. I've many good memories of Bobby. Some going back as far as setting off fireworks back when you lived on Mill street (I think). Also who could forget the Weber confabs at the Weber home on Pierce Street with the family gatherings. Uncle Bob always seemed to be upbeat and cared about family. He'll be missed.
Our deepest condolences;

“ We will always have fond memories of Bob. First met him when Ollen was manager of Dwights grocery store and he worked for Bunny Bread back in the seventys. It was always uplifting to be around Bob. Just to be around him, made you feel happy and everything was okay. Ollen said he could never remember Bob having anything bad to say about anyone and he admired him for that. Our prayers, thoughts and love to the family. Ollen and Mildred Stepp.

“ One of my true joys in life was running into Bobby around town. It was always a uplifting occasion, no matter how brief. He would always have something witty to say. Of course, if I had Mary Ann with me, well, then it was all about her....hardly a word was said in my direction! Bobby was my "Bread Man" at the "Hometown Drive In" in Tontitown back in the 70's and would make a special delivery on weekends if I ran out of buns. It was a treat after he "retired" to see him occasionally at Dandy's gas station at Sunset & Pleasant. I guess the last time I saw him was at a Naturals game last year with Sam & Elizabeth Weathers.....glad I got a picture .All this being said, the thing I most admired about Bobby is that he raised 3 girls. I do believe, Bobby, that there is a special place in Heaven for us! See you later my friend.....
