“ Brother. I will never forget all the crazy things we did together. You were always the one to calm me down when i was about to loose it. You were a peace maker. Your were more of a man than i will ever be. You taught me how to survive with a smile. Yea we didnt always do the right thing, but we always stayed back to back. We took on the world together. The thing that keeps me from loosing it these days is knowing you died clean. A responsible man, and i know if i stay clean one day at a time till god calls me home, brother we will be reunited. Gone But Never Forgotten. You touched more peoples lifes than you will ever know. Miss you big brother. much love R&R

“ We are all so sad to have lost you so soon. You had so much going well for you, a great future to look forward to. It doesn't seem right that you're no longer running around town for a chance to have a random run-in with you. None of this seems right. I'm pretty sure that you're up in Heaven now with some awesome wings, looking over those who mean the most to you. Just try to keep those pants pulled up cuz I don't know how much butt-crack is allowed in Heaven! Love, Aunt Roseanne

“ I know your kickin it with Jesus right now looking down on us wanting us to be strong because your in a better place and we will all see you soon. A lot of people dont know where there loved one end up going when they pass, but I know your in heaven just from thinking back on all the prayers and conversations we had together. We are all fine. A lot of us are sad and grieving but we know that God has a plan and God never makes mistakes and theres a reason he took you soo soon from us. Cant wait to be up there! Im praying for your family and the rest of the friends! You will never be forgotten! Love ya and Rest In Peace Brannon.
