

Brian Ashley Johnson

March 12, 1968 - August 5, 2014

Brian Ashley Johnson, 46, died August 5, 2014 at Mercy Medical Center in Rogers. He was born March 12, 1968 in Mountain Home, Idaho to Gary Wayne Johnson and Barbara Ann Claypool.

Brian formerly worked in the logistics department for Walmart. He was an avid outdoorsman. He loved to camp and go canoeing. He had a passion for fitness, and made friends wherever he went. Brian's greatest accomplishment was his children. He was active in all aspects of their lives, and could not have been prouder.

He is survived by his parents, his wife, Teri Johnson of the home, one son Aidan Johnson of Springdale, two daughters, Allison Johnson of Springdale and Hilary Dumas and husband Taylor of Little Rock, Arkansas, one sister, Amy Caciola and husband Dan of Springdale.

Funeral services will be held at Sisco Funeral Chapel on Monday, August 11 at 2:00 PM. A visitation will take place before the service on Monday.

“ Sad to find this news.

Brian and his family were good to me in my teen years and allowed me to stay many times when I had no place to stay.

“Brian was a wonderful friend and human being. He had a great sense of humor, and I always looked forward to being in his presence. Brian was very strong and capable; yet gentle, generous and kind.....a mensch. I will miss him greatly, and remember him with love in my heart.

To his family,

My profoundly sympathetic thoughts are with you at this grievous time.

“ Brian will be missed, and also remembered, by so many! I will always think of him with a big smile on his face. He loved his family and he especially loved his children. He was a good son, a good big brother, a loyal friend and a great Dad. You will be missed, Brian.
