“ I met Dale & Frank when I started working at Rockline in 2000. Of course Frank and I were from Louisiana and Dale fit right on in like a Brother. Dale was a very kind, funny, hard working Christian and I'm honored to call him my friend. He would give you the shirt off his back and would drop what he was doing to help...that's a true Friend and very rare plus very refreshing to say the least. I knew Dale for 23 years and had just spoke to him last week. He had talked about coming to stay at our Historic Sassafras Inn in Mena, Arkansas in the the beautiful foothills of the Ouachita Mountains that we consider our hidden gem built in 1900 to catch up and reminisce. I'm still in shock and can't believe this is real. My sincere condolences to the family and may you rest in peace my friend. God must have really needed a good ole boy, but he will truly be missed.
