

Carl Richard Stamper

March 7, 1947 - June 1, 2024

Carl Richard Stamper, 77, of Tontitown, passed away Saturday, June 1, 2024, at Baptist Health in Little Rock, Arkansas. He was born March 7, 1947, in Macon, Missouri, to Billy Stamper and Lucille Jeter Stamper.

He spent his early years in Madison, Missouri, where his father worked at the local newspaper. At age five, Carl's family moved to Elsberry, Missouri, where he enjoyed a wonderful childhood filled with his passion for baseball. His love for sports continued throughout his youth, playing basketball and football and excelling in baseball during his high school years in New Hampton, Iowa. Carl's athletic talents were evident from a young age, earning him recognition and letters in multiple sports.

After graduating high school in 1965, Carl's family moved to Arkansas, where he attended Ellsworth Junior College and later transferred to Arkansas Tech. In 1969, Carl met the love of his life, Connie Blalock. They married on October 4, 1969, and enjoyed 35 beautiful years together.

Connie passed away in 2004 after a battle with leukemia. Despite the challenges, Carl remained a devoted father and grandfather, finding joy in his family and the memories they created together. He had a deep love for watching horse racing, a hobby he continued to enjoy later in life.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Connie J Stamper, and one great-grandson, Wyatt Matthew Baugh.

Survivors include three children, Stephanie Ford and husband Eric of Springdale, Richie Stamper and wife Amanda of Tontitown, and Matt Stamper and wife Carolyn of Springdale; seven grandchildren, Christina Cook, Samantha Alexander, Heather Baugh and husband Parker, Madison Stamper, Jasmine Stamper, Kaitlyn Stamper and Landon Stamper and two great-grandchildren, Ezekiel Cook and Elijah Baugh.

A celebration of life will take place Wednesday, June 5th, 2024, at 11 AM at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale, Arkansas. Interment will follow at Bluff Cemetery.

“ All of his friends at UplnClass Horse Racing will miss him deeply. Richard joined our online forum under the screen name "arsignman" on Jul 13, 2018 at 7:09pm. His last post was Apr 27, 2024 at 3:01pm. A well respected member of the horse playing and handicapping community, Mr. Stamper is remembered fondly as a friend and respected gentleman! The following is his introduction to his fellow players at UplnClass.com

My name is Richard alias "arsignman" from Arkansas where I have lived for 53 years.

The first track I went to was OAKLAWN PARK back when I was in college and have been hooked on the horses since. I've been fortunate to see many great horses and jockeys in my time at different tracks.

Tracks: Oaklawn and Saratoga, Keeneland are my favorites, also been to Churchill Downs, Ellis Park, Blue Ribbon Downs, La. Downs, Will Rogers, Remington Park, and Lone Star Park.

Horses: Big Red, Alydar, Seattles Slew, Spectacular Bid, John Henry, Lure and many more.

Jockeys: Pat Day, Shoemaker, John Valasquez.

Trainers: Woody Stephens, Charlie Whittingham, Chad Brown,

Biggest win was the Breeders Cup 2014

Work all Week, Secret Circle, Private Zone $2129.40

and Kentucky Derby 2008 Big Brown, Eight Belles, Denis of Cork $6891.20

It was a tremendous pleasure to share our horse racing passions together! We were lucky to call him friend. Rest In Peace fellow traveler, "arsignman." Our thoughts are with you, your family, and the people you loved!
