“ The Collins family loved Bob and Carol so much. We have shared so many memories. For days I have just sat and thought about all the good times we had together. We saw babies born and people pass. We had great services at church and had so many adventures together. My family is praying for all of you. It is so hard to lose great people but some day we will all be together again in Heaven and oh what a day that will be! Love and prayers from The Collins’

“ It was wonderful working with Carol for many years at Wal-Mart!!!! It was so funny when Carol left Wal-Mart, a song came on the radio "Take this job and shove it" by Johnny Paycheck.. They said this is dedicated to Carol Wilkerson We Loved you Carol !!! Our condolences go out to her family. What a tragedy and a blessing too, to lose your husband and three days later join him in Heaven!

God bless Carol Wilkerson! She was a wonderful dental patient of mine at the Smile Center. She was determined, kind, loving, and adored by so many. I will miss just knowing she was still going to the Smile Center. What a wonderful human being. She loved Bob and Shelly. I will never forget you Carol, I know your faith has gained you many heavenly rewards. Know that you are missed!
