

Caroline Theresa Hoerres

April 18, 1934 - April 19, 2024

Caroline Theresa Hoerres, 90 of West Fork, passed away Friday, April 19, 2024 at Prairie Grove Health and Rehab in Prairie Grove. She was born April 18, 1934 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to Walter Sikorski and Theresa Sokolowski Sikorski.

Carol had five children while married to her first husband, Maynard Saugstad. She later remarried and moved to Arkansas with her family and new husband, Xavier (Zip) Hoerres. She lived in Arkansas for about 28 years becoming part of the West Fork community.

Carol had a rabbitry and raised rabbits for Pel-Freez out of Rogers, later she became interested in dairy goats and afterwards started Misty Mountain Dairy Goats. Carol became known for her knowledge and bloodlines of her dairy goats.

Carol and Zip retired to Las Vegas, Nevada where she enjoyed playing slot machines and going to shows. After her husband's death in 2018 she came home to Arkansas to live out her remaining years.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Xavier George "Zip" Hoerres, Jr., of 51 years, her first husband, Maynard Saugstad and one brother, Leonard Sikorski.

Survivors include six children, Sandra Street, Steve Saugstad, Karen Lockhart, John Saugstad, James Saugstad and Tracy Cantwell; and eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be Wednesday, June 5, 2024 at 10:30 am at Fayetteville National Cemetery.

No visitation is planned.
