“ *Kent & Vicki and family,
I have tried to think of something to say, but I have no words. My heart is broken for you. Of course, I only knew Cassie as a little girl in Houston. But I have sweet memories of your entire family. May God surround you with love and comfort.

“ *We were so sorry to hear of Cassandra's passing. We know she will be missed terribly. But we have so much respect for her fight-to-the end against cancer. She gave her all, plus more for her family and wrung every moment out of life. That's quite a heritage to leave for her family and friends. Much love and many prayers for you all.

“ Being in band with Cassie was always fun. Her laughter and smile brought plenty of light to her surrounding friends. When she laughed, her shoulders shook, too, and you could tell that she wasn't just laughing to appease onlookers, she was laughing because she loved to.

“ No words can express your loss. I am so thankful that she is at peace in the arms of our precious Jesus. I pray for comfort and assurance that one day it will all make sense. From what I can tell she is, was, and will always be loved beyond measure.

“ Cassandra's mother and I taught together in Springdale; such a wonderful family. I have followed Cassandra's blog and marveled at the courage and strength that Cassandra, Eric, and the rest of the family displayed through this long roller coaster ride. The ride has come to an end, but the good memories will live forever. May the Lord give you comfort and strength to continue during these difficult days. With love and prayers, Edna Rothwell

“ No words can express or gesture sufficient to express during such a difficult time. I can only humbly convey my admiration of the great courage and dignity shown by Cassandra & her family. She showed so much bravery, determination & honesty during her battles. It is said “the flower that blooms in adversity is the rarest and most beautiful of all!” We remember & celebrate her amazing life and also the legacy she leaves.....her beautiful family & son. It has been & is the greatest honor for me to have known such an amazing & special lady. My sincerest love to you Cassie & strength for the future to your remarkable family!

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. Cassandra was my desk partner at JB Hunt for awhile and she was always so pleasant and bubbly. May you take comfort in knowing that she is now free of pain. I admire the strength she had to fight as long as she did, she was a very brave and strong woman and I hope that your son will always remember that about his mother.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss.. There are no words to be said to take away the pain or to fill your loss.. Hopefully you all can find peace in knowing that Cassie is not hurting any more and is in a far better place.. Cancer is such a cruel and indiscriminating disease; hopefully one day they will find a cure for.. Cassie touched so many people's lives by sharing her experience; I know you all will cherish those BLOGS for the rest of your lives.. This should definitely make everyone rethink their priorities and put everything that is really important in perspective.. We will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers,, Ya'll have a lot of people in your corner.. Don't hesitate to call in a favor if you need one.. Hang in there.. Bodie Travis and Family
