“ To the extended family,

My mother, Henrietta Holcomb; my sister, Margaret Holcomb-Pruiksmā; and I extend our sympathy in the passing of Cecil. We are grateful to have had the opportunity to meet him and some of you during our efforts to improve the Holcomb Cemetery.

We are especially appreciative to know about the care Cecil gave to the site, honoring the early families with loved ones buried there. Our several visits there were made so pleasant as we became acquainted with such a fine man and members of your family.

Please pass our condolences to the grandchildren whom we met. We hope that there might be opportunity to collect their memories associated with visits there.

Sincerely,

Jo (Holcomb) Heiliger

“ I'm sorry to see about the passing of Cecil. He became my friend through Dorothy Scoggins. He fixed by machine, and I enjoyed talking with him each time I visited.

“ Farewell and rest in peace, my friend, Cecil, and a man whom I admired greatly for his life and his "toughness" in standing up for the gospel. I will have to miss the funeral, but you and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.
