A WW II Army veteran, he served in Egypt and Iran where he was assigned to transportation and motor pool duty and delighted in telling stories of ferrying Army officials and families to see the ancient pyramids.

A master plumber and member of the Plumbers and Steamfitters Local Union 29 in Ft. Smith, he enjoyed a 50-year career. A longtime superintendent for Malone's Mechanical of Van Buren, he was proud of his contributions to numerous NWA landmarks including Walton Arts Center, many University of Arkansas dorms and buildings and renovations to the original Washington

He loved to travel, including family driving vacations throughout the western U.S. and later with his loving wife Pat on trips to the Holy Land, Greece, Germany and the Bavarian Alps.

He enjoyed attending Razorback games and rarely missed listening to Northwest Arkansas Naturals radio broadcasts. An enthusiastic WATCH D.O.G.S. volunteer at Tyson Elementary School, he was a patient and loving grandfather, providing instruction from how to tend his annual summer garden to learning how to drive.
