

Charles Junior Burns

September 6, 1961 - July 5, 2020

Charles Junior Burns, 58, of Springdale, Ark., passed into eternity with Jesus on July 5, 2020, in Rogers. He was born in Springdale, Ark., on Sept 6, 1961.

Charles was a giving, gentle spirit that put others first in life. He was a loving and devoted man. He was married to Kathy for 38 years, a proud Papa for almost 6 years, and a valued part of the Tyson family for 41 years. When he wasn't helping others, he was fishing on the lake.

He is survived by his wife, Kathy; two daughters, Stefanie Petryszak and husband, Shane and Jennifer Burns; four brothers, Melvin Andrews and wife, Donna, Perry Davis and wife, Brenda, James Burns and wife, Sarah, and Leslie Andrews; one sister Karen Burns; two grandchildren, Sofia Petryszak and Kalia Petryszak; and many other loved ones.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie and Dessie Burns, and his granddaughter Adalyn Petryszak.

Graveside service will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday, July 8, 2020 at Pinnacle Memorial Gardens in Rogers, Ark., officiated by Danny Williams. (masks will be required for attendees)

Memorials, in lieu of flowers and gifts, may be made to Charles' Memorial

Support for NWA Healthcare Go Fund Me account where the funds will be used to bless the frontline healthcare workers in Northwest Arkansas.

Arrangements are under the care of Sisco Funeral Chapel of Springdale.

“ As a child he liked to climb as far to the top of the tree as possible and make a bigger better jump for his bike and as much ice cream as he could get away with and his cowboy get up at Christmas to going fishing with grandpa. He liked to tease me 50 years later about the few what he called fancy dresses I got once in my childhood. How we would laugh over it
