“ My sincere condolences to Charlie's children and other family members. It is hard to believe that Charlie has gone on to be with our Lord. I will cherish our friendship and knowledge that no finer man has ever lived in Springdale. Charlie was a great man and his contribution to the City of Springdale will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace my friend!!

“ Cameron Family, So sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad Charlie. He and my Dad Mort were childhood friends and we made many trips to Springdale buying clothes as I'm sure you made many trips to Paris buying furniture! Thinking of you at this time. Sincerely,
Jane Ann and all the Hardwicke kids.

“ My dad built Charlie's house on Willard and my husband was Dad's job super. They both thought a lot of both your Dad and your Mother. I didn't know about either passing until today and we are sadden to hear of your loss. We lost Dad in 2010 and understand the heartbreak of losing your parents. God Bless...Harold and Glenda Young “ Charlie was such a dear friend of my Grandfather, Jim Cantrell. I know that Grandpa always looked forward to coffee with Charlie. Charlie was always so sweet to my son thinking of him on his birthday and Christmas. My family has always been blessed to have the Charlie and Lois as friends. My prayers are with you during this difficult time.
