“ Our condolences to you as Uncle Claud has gone on to his heavenly reward. We have many fond memories of all the camping trips, picnics, stock car races, holidays spent, Rook games, and riding motorcycle's around Azwell with him and your family. Uncle Claud always liked a good time filled with laughter. Through the passing years and distance, we've always cherished our growing up years with Uncle Claud and Aunt Rosalie, who were like surrogate parents. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love, Charlotte Dauber, Roger Neale, Bobby Neale

“ Sorry for your family's loss, I will always have fond memories of Claud and his mannerisms. His greetings were always warm and caring "well, Rockie, how are you doing", in his slow voice. That delivery, I will always remember along with the talks he and my dad would have about the old days. God Bless him and you.

Rockie
