“ Charley and my Dad, Lester Foulke, were childhood friends. Evidently they were involved in many shenanigans - that mostly involved hunting or fishing. In recent years they reconnected. They talked on the phone most every day - and sometimes more often than once. My sister and I always could tell when Daddy had been talking to Charley. You could hear it in his voice. He was always upbeat and happy after his conversations with him. Whenever Kimberly or I would call Charley, he would always say, at least once in the conversation, "well...I'll be a suck egg mule". Where that came from we don't know. But it will forever be a phrase we will use because of him. When you get to the age where most of your friends have passed away, it sure is lonely and sad for those left. My Dad will miss him and all their conversations so very much! He has collected a lot of things through his life, but he will tell you the best things he collected were memories. He and Charley had a lot of those! I am keeping all of Charley's family and friends in my prayers. I know he is loved and will be missed by many.

“ I loved and respected Charlie Farmer. When I would hang out at their house as a young teenager with Debbie and Vicki , he wasn't always around, but when he was, I always felt welcome in their home and by him. He presented with a gruff personality, but I always felt at peace with him. I prayed for him for years to get right with God and return to church. I was overjoyed when I found out that he had started going to church at Elmdale with David and Tim send Deb. God answered those prayers in a major way. He will be missed, but we will see him again in Heaven. He and Louise are enjoying their reunion. Love you all Farmer/Reed families. Praying for you in your grief. Cyndie (Reed) Lyon
