“ Leslie was one of a kind. I thought the world of him. When Les and Jo found out that me and Ed were moving back to Springdale from California they insisted we spend our last night at their house. We ended up spending two nights because Les wanted to take us to a fair for a day. Les and Jo were so hospitable and made us feel welcomed and loved. Les was just always fun to be around so we certainly enjoyed our day at the fair!

I have many wonderful memories but one that stands out is meeting him and his brother (Beecher) at Hugo's in Fayetteville. Fun? We met around 6:00 or 7:00 and shut the place down! I laughed so much that my stomach hurt the next day.

I truly can't remember a single time that Les didn't have a huge smile on his face when we saw each other. He was very special to me. I loved him and will always miss him.
