“ *Charles Taldo was my daddy! He was a hard working man that loved each of children! There was no favorites. He would get on to each on of us ! I loved that man to death. I wish I had him with me today. But I know he is better now and not suffering any more!
I love you!

“ Paula and I met Charlie about fifteen years ago as we took ownership of the Sunset Grill.

Charlie was the guy in charge of the kitchen, and come to find out had a fairly long history of cooking. It was a pleasure to find that cooking was a passion and a true talent which came naturally for Charlie. His love for the world of food was and is, the key that every good restaurant has to have in order to be successful. Charlie helped us create a restaurant with a good reputation by being reliable and willing, even on days where he didn't feel good. We have a great deal of admiration for him and his family. Charlie was a warm hearted person that cared about his family and his profession.
