

Chester Miller

April 4, 2012

Chester Wayne Miller entered his eternal home on April 4, 2012. His legacy continues to live on in those that he invested his time, love and skills. He is reunited with his wife, Noretta Miller who preceded him in death on April 28, 2009.

Their marriage, family, farm and custom homebuilding business were all examples of the team work that characterized their lives. Chet was born in Oakdale, Oklahoma on December 26, 1936. His family raised watermelons and other crops there until he graduated in 1955 from Cleo Springs High school. While on wheat harvest through the mid-west, he met the daughter of a west Texas harvester and they were married in Muleshoe, Texas. In 1960 they moved to Northwest Arkansas and began a custom home construction business along with raising cattle. This business grew as the area expanded and Chet continued his reputation for building a quality home and being a man of his word.

He built a thriving home construction business on this motto "the best advertisement is a satisfied customer." We seek to live out the values of hard work, honesty and loyalty he personified.

Chet was preceded in death by his wife Noretta and son Ricky Miller, his parents Ernest and Myrtle Miller, his brothers Don and Robert Miller, his sisters Lota Henderson, Lois Adams and Mary Lou Miller. He lives on in his daughter Melinda Blackwell and husband Ken of Cave Springs, his son Dennis Miller and wife Kerry of Albuquerque, New Mexico and son Randy Miller and wife Jennifer of North Richland Hills, Texas. His impact is also seen in his grandchildren, Alicia and Nathan Brown, Ryan and Rachel Blackwell, Kelsey, Delaney, Cara and Allison Miller. His great-grandchildren also are examples of his love: Will, Kate, Eli, Liv Brown and Brady Blackwell. He is also survived by his brother Dean Miller and wife Marian of Edmond, Oklahoma; brother Bill Miller and wife Diane of Bella Vista, brother-in-law Don Adams of Tulsa, and sister-in-law Ruth Miller of Thornton, Colorado. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews whom he loved. Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labor in vain, Psalm 127:1.

Services will be held at 11:00 am April 14 at Cross Church in Springdale where he was a member since 1963. Burial will be in Rogers at Benton County Memorial Park cemetery. Visitation for family and friends will be at the chapel of Cross Church of Springdale on Friday, April 13 from 6-8 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Circle of Life Hospice in Springdale in memory of Chet Miller.

“ Chet was a living testimony as to how a Christian man should live and do business. I am a better man for having known him and the coffee shop will miss that big smile and laugh.

“ Chet will always be remembered as honest, loyal, a good friend, a loving family man and a Christian. He is at peace now with his wife who he missed terribly. Our loss on Earth is Heaven's gain.

“ Although you don't know me, your Father built my parents' (Bill and Carolyn Fair) home. They are still living in that home which is approximately 42 years old and on Main Street in Bentonville. My Dad always spoke very highly of Chet Miller. He is now 88 and my Mother will be 80 in October. My Mom was just telling me how we used to visit your parents home in Springdale. She also said that your Father built my Grandparents home in Cave Springs. Quite a legacy of homes built by your Father in the 'Fair Family'!

Anyway, I Am so sorry for your loss. Just know that his influence touched our lives and still does.

God Bless,
Rebecca J (Fair) Booth.
