

Clarence "Cory" Hale

April 9, 1969 - November 2, 2017

Clarence "Cory" Hale, 48 of West Fork, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, November 2, 2017.

He was born April 9, 1969 to Kenneth Don Hale and Lana Kay Airhart in Stanton, Texas.

He was married to Gay Lynn Main on April 1, 2017.

He was preceded in death by his mother.

He is survived by his wife, Gay Lynn; their children, Lana Hale of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Krista Hale of West Fork, Arkansas, Dakota Main of West Fork, Arkansas and Christopher Main of Springdale, Arkansas; his father, Kenneth Don Hale of Proctor, Texas; his brother, Cary Hale of Houston, Texas; and several uncles, aunts and cousins.

A hard-working man who cared deeply for his family found great pride in his children, and was taken far too soon. Cory never met a stranger. Silver tongued, he could speak to anyone he met on almost any subject. He was full of contagious laughter. A welder/fabricator by trade – Cory was passionate about his work. He never sat idle. He was always ready to get a job done and to the best of his ability. Whether at home, work, helping a friend or a stranger in need. He was ready and willing to lend a hand. He will be remembered fondly with love by many people that had the good fortune to cross his path.

Funeral service will be Thursday, November 9th 2017 at 2 PM at Sisco Funeral Chapel of Springdale.

Visitation will be Wednesday from 6 to 8 PM at the funeral home.

“ Cory Hale, I am a fellow associate who's heart mourns for your family in this untimely departure of life! I pray life & prosperity over your family's future! Every life makes a difference & you may have become a statistic but you leave a legacy behind! Scripture that comes to mind says this, John 15-13 Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down ones life for his friends. God speed brother Clarence!
