“ It was an honor to pray with Clarice in the last few hours of her life here on earth, and I know that her life now in her new home will be a wonderful one. I know that you will all miss her greatly and I'm sorry for your loss. Your memories of her will be great as you think back over your life with her in your midst. I felt her very sweet spirit in evidence even in her illness and I'm so glad to have met her. God bless all of you.
