“ Epitaph
By Merrit Malloy

*When I die
Give what's left of me away
To children
And old me that wait to die.*

*And if you need to cry,
Cry for your brother
Walking the street beside you.
And when you need me,
Put your arms
Around anyone
And give them
What you need to give to me.*

*I want to leave you something,
Something better
Than words
Or sounds.*

*Look for me
In the people I've known
Or loved,
And if you cannot give me away,
At least let me live on in your eyes
And not your mind.*

*You can love me most
By letting
Hands touch hands,
By letting bodies touch bodies,
And by letting go
Of children
That need to be free.*

*Love doesn't die,
People do.
So, when all that's left of me
Is love,
Give me away.*

“ When visiting the Mulkey home just a few short years ago with Gala, I remarked how much I liked a native plant that was growing just past the lawn that Clytia had just mowed. Within minutes, shovel in hand, through the bar wire fence she went. Typical of her, at 85 years of age she was helping me, a younger person, through the fence.

That kinda speaks volumes. Eighty-five years of age, still mowing her lawn, climbing through fences, but more important: generous of spirit and generous in always proving a helping hand.

Good job.

“ *Mulkey Family,
Although gone from our presence, we embrace memories that warm the heart and help us anticipate the next “immortal realm” with hope and joy.*

I became a long-term landlord customer in 1972 and was captured by the nostalgic, down to earth contentment and home spun common sense, each visit to the “little shop” with Clyde & Clytia.

*Deepest condolence to the entire family.

“ LIVING HERE FIFTY-FIVE YEARS, WE ALL RECOGNIZED CALVIN'S OLE VAN ( BROWN HAT ) ROUNDING THE CORNER HEADED ONTO HUNTSVILLE STREET ONE WAY OR THE OTHER TO A CALL FOR HELP, LOCKED OUT OF THEIR CAR OR HOME. YO CALL THE OFFICE CLYTIA ANSWERED, OR GO BY, SHE COULD ANSWER ANY QUESTION, MAKE YOU A KEY, OPEN YOUR LOCK...JUST AS GOOD AS CALVIN. A REAL TEAM, SERVICED OUR COMMUNITY WELL. VISITING WITH HER IN HER SMALL OFFICE WITH KEY STOCK ON ALL THE WALLS, GIVE HER YOUR KEY...SHE KNEW WHERE ON THE WALL THERE WAS A MATCHING BLANK TO MATCH YOURS. REST IN PEACE LADY, YOU EARNED IT..
