

Cullen Wayne Wharton

November 28, 1960 - October 23, 2024

Cullen Wayne Wharton of Lowell, Arkansas, passed away on October 23rd, 2024. He was born to Charles Wayne Wharton and Zona Rae Wharton in Springdale, AR, on November 28th, 1960. He leaves behind his son, Cullen Keith Wharton.

He lived in Lowell, AR for most of his life. He was in the Army after attending high school in Rogers, AR. He went to college and drove semi trucks for many years. He loved to mow and help others, even when they didn't want his help. He spent most of his free time playing video games and talking about the weather. He met many close friends on games in the 2010s. He loved his pets, with a fondness for smaller dogs and cats. He was often a misunderstood man, but he was still a father who tried his best. May he rest in heaven.
