

Cynthia Roberts

May 28, 2008

A celebration of the life of Cynthia Ann Mooneyham Roberts of Springdale will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 31, at the First Baptist Church in Centeron. She died May 28, 2008, at the age of 51.

Cindy was born April 1, 1957, in Fairbanks, Alaska, the daughter of U.S. Army Officer Clifton W. and Frances Brown Mooneyham. From Alaska, she moved with her family to Casper, Wyo., and Colorado Springs, Colo., then to Heavener, Okla., where she lived on the family ranch and graduated from high school.

Cindy was a beloved wife, daughter, sister and aunt who greatly enriched the lives of those whom she touched. She worked for Wal-Mart Stores Inc. for 23 years and spent the last 12 years as a regional operations manager for Division 7 Logistics at the home office in Bentonville.

She is survived by her husband, Jim Roberts; stepson, James Roberts; granddaughter, Bree Roberts; stepmother, Marybel Mooneyham of Alma; sisters, Pamela Hudson and her husband, Jim, of Florence, Colo., and Jean Hayek of Cheyenne, Wyo.; nieces, Wendy Ferguson and her husband, Michael, of Penrose, Colo., and Dina Johnson and her husband, Guy, of West Sacramento, Calif.; nephews, Shane Hudson and his wife, April, of Dallas and Brady Hayek of Jackson, Wyo.; great-nephews, Jared, Isaac, Wesley and Wyatt Ferguson and Gage Johnson; great-niece, Piper Johnson; stepsiblings and their families, Benny and Pam Cox of Alma, Michael and Debera Cox of Arlington, Texas, and Deborah and Jim Johnson of Dallas.

She died as she lived, with courage, determination, faith and grace - a warrior to the end.

Cindy will be missed dearly by her loved ones and her Wal-Mart family, but her spirit will live on.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Susan G. Komen for the Cure or the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements are by the Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.
