“ To the Farmer family I am so sorry for your loss. David was my best friend throughout childhood all the way through my early 20s. We lived together, camped together, went to school & skipped school together, we floated rivers together spent God only knows how many nights & days together playing music, chasing girls, shutting down the town & just being there for each other through thick & thin. David was more than a friend to me but a brother I never had. We did it all & then some. The world lost a great guy & a best friend but David changed the world for those of us that knew him & we will be forever grateful for the man that was David. Heaven gained an angel & I know your smiling down on us. Until we meet again. I love you bud.
