“ It has been an honor for us to have known Brother David, as Pastor, friend and teacher. Also as golf buddy. He was a caring and loving person, who never met a stranger, always ready to share the good news of Jesus with any all who he met. His knowledge of archaeology and the Holy Land lent a greater dimension to his teaching and preaching. My wife Yvonne and I shall miss him, but we also know that we shall meet again one day. We have been blessed by having shared these 3 years in Brackettville with David and we thank the Lord for our time together.
