“ I did not know David or his family, but I was walking today in Bluff Cemetary and pondered his headstone for quite some time. The Bible passages inscribed there blessed me tremendously. He & Sandra must have been truly special individuals to have left a legacy that blesses people they never even met. I just wanted those who loved them to know someone new has come to appreciate David and Sandra. May God bless you with peace and comfort.

“ Elizabeth, Jonathan, and Christopher,
I agree with Patti. I can't imagine losing both parents at such a young age. God's blessings to all of you. Keep that closeness I've watched in years past. I am thankful to have know and loved both of your parents. Although you will miss them very much, your mom and dad are now waiting for you and they're not hurting anymore. I will continue to remember you in prayer.

“ Elizabeth, Jonathan, and Christopher - Please know that my thoughts are with you at this time of sorrow. Although I've lost both of my parents in these past two years, I cannot imagine having lost them when I was as young as you are. I know you will look out for each other and accomplish fabulous things in your lives. May the Grace of God enfold you and carry you through the rest of your lives.
