

Deborah Lee VanMeter-Lynn

February 22, 1956 - November 1, 2023

Deborah Lee VanMeter-Lynn of Hindsville, Arkansas born February 22, 1956 in Phoenix, Arizona to Thomas VanMeter and Joy McDonald-Lee. She entered eternal rest after she fought her short term of Glioblastoma Brain Cancer on November 1, 2023 at Willard Walker Hospice in Fayetteville, AR surrounded by family.

She is preceded in death by her paternal grandparents John and Velma Vanmeter and maternal grandparents Elmer and Thelma McDonald. Her father Thomas Vanmeter and her Step Father (Papa) Dale Lee. Her Uncle John McDonald and Aunt Linda Freeman.

She was avid in Therapeutic Foster Care and a safe haven for her therapeutic foster care kids. She enjoyed finding out the history of her family such as genealogy and ancestry. She worked in the cafeteria for Fort Smith, AR and Springdale, AR Public Schools. She loved her three daughters unconditionally.

She has survived by her mother Joy Lee in Rogers, Arkansas, her brother Thomas (Tom) and wife Billie Vanmeter of Gillette, Wyoming, husband and best friend Tommy Lynn, three daughters, Penny, Grant, and husband Jason of Kansas City, Missouri, Alyson Ingram and husband Justin of Hindsville, Arkansas, and Rachel Lewis of Paragould, Arkansas. One step-daughter, Whitney Hirsch and husband Greg of Huntingburg, Indiana. Seven grandchildren Jerret Wade Grant and wife Mariana of Mary Esther, Florida, Gracie Grant of Bryant, Arkansas, and Piper Grant of Kansas City, Missouri, Kiana Ingram and Kyler Ingram of Hindsville, Arkansas, Sophia Ingram and Katherine Lewis of Paragould, Arkansas. Her niece Emily Vanmeter of Gillette, Wyoming.

She is expecting her great granddaughter Luna Grant in January of 2024.

Pastor Terry Easterling will be officiating her celebration of life on November 11, 2023 at the House of Worship at 2 PM in Hindsville, Arkansas. The address is 22184 Highway 303, Hindsville AR 72738.
