“ Dear Debbie (Momma Jo) u will be missed by all of us that u called ur kids. U where a light to us all when we where down. U have taught all of us a leason that needed to be learned. I will never forget the time when u chased my ex down the road from the rodeo grounds telling him leave my child alone she can do better then u n she will bc Im her mom. U made us smile and when we all think of the good n bad times we all had u where right there with all of us no matter what. Well now u are at home with our sister n brother. U take care of them like u did when all three of you guys where on this earth. I love u n miss u dearly. Give James n Misty a hug n kiss for me n I will see yalls smiling face soon..... God only take the best home first..... U where one of the best that we all loved..... R.I.P Debbie Gibbs a.k.a (Momma Jo).....

“ If there’s a more selfless person I don’t know them. Debbie (aka Momma Jo) was one of the strongest most caring and generous woman anyone could no. She was Always straight up about whatever, always, and could calm the drama around her, unless of course she was the storm protecting one of “hers” LOL. She was “Momma” to more kids than we can count and will be sorely missed by all that knew her! Ride free in that big Rodeo in the Sky with your loved ones that passed before you💕💕 Love and prayers to Lonnie and Trenton during this hard time.

“ I was lucky to be part of Momma Jo's life since I was 16 years old when I became friends with Misti and James and she was like a mom to me from day one and always treated me like one of her own. We love you and miss you but its your turn to be with Misti, James and Willie and enjoy those rodeos up there in heaven now.
