“ I remember the first time I met Dee. I had applied for a job at the company she was working for. She had this real deep southern accent and I loved hearing her talk. She was the most kindest person ever. When our family was going to Disney World we stopped by to see her and Charles and our daughters were so excited to see Memaw and Papaw, She insisted we stay the night with her and Charles and we learned then that you could not say no to Dee. She cooked for us even though it was so hot, she didn't mind at all. I wanted to help but she said to sit down and we had the longest and best talk. She will be so missed by all. We love you Dee and miss you. I know that you and Charles are in Heaven watching over all of us and smiling, and yes shaking your head.

“ Mickey and Kaye always loved when Dean and Charles and sometimes GeDonna got to come to Paragould and visit with her brother Robert and wife Gil . She would bring a quilt she was making ,or crafts that she loved to do, to show everyone or give to someone, We would always have a big dinner or picnic and enjoy a great family gathering. Everyone loved her!
