“ I grew up playing with my lifelong best friend Jeff at Momma D's house. The warmth and love she showed me for over 20 years was always felt. No matter what happened I always had a place to go. She was like my second mother. I will miss her dearly and wish everyone in the family peaceful hearts for a woman who lived her life to the fullest making every breathe count! I love you Momma D and hope your breathing a little more easy with God!
