

Dennis Joe Walker

February 26, 1951 - February 3, 2018

Dennis Joe Walker went home to be with the Lord on February 3, 2018. He died peacefully in the hands of his wife and daughter. Anyone who knew Dennis could all agree in saying, "What a life he lived". Dennis was born in Fayetteville, AR to Clint and Lucille Walker on February 26, 1951. He served in the US Army and was a proud Vietnam Veteran.

He was the loving husband for 30 years to Betty (Hattabaugh) Walker, who survives. They had one daughter, Whitney Lynn (Walker) Grady, and her husband Chris Grady.

Dennis lived a very full life. He never did anything halfway. That's just how he rolls! He was an entrepreneur. Dennis owned 4 businesses at the same time for a few years. He owned Walker's Service Center, Walker Properties, Collector's Corner, & Used Oil Service Company, which is his sole business today. Dennis started his oil business in 1987 on a handshake with his business partner from Oklahoma City, Mr. Jim Charles & wife, Sheryl. He has numerous employees, which have always felt like Family to him. He considered Adam Taylor, his general manager, like a son, and he loved him like his own. He was a member of The Elks Lodge in Fayetteville, and was a Classic Car enthusiast. His favorite charities include: Wounded Warriors and Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a highly influential and respected man in his Community. He loved watching Western Movies and enjoyed traveling.

Survivors include his mother and father in law, Billy and Bessie Hattabaugh, cousins, Allison Pinkley and her husband Allen, Carl Nail and his wife Paula, Donny Graham and his wife Lynn, Jerry Graham and wife Marty, and a host of 2nd Cousins, and great` Nieces & nephews.

“ *My condolences to Dennis's "Justin" family
What pops in my head when I think of Dennis is when we were hanging out together when he lived at the Shady Grove mobile home park. We decided we were going to get in his VW bug and go somewhere as he is backing out we feel this bump and kinda look at each other like what the heck happen we turn around and see this kid rolling out from underneath his VW bug then this kid just takes off we start running up and down the streets trying to find him to see if he is hurt. We go up to the door and tell his mom Dennis just backed over her son with his VW and she say oh he'll be ok. We are like OK. Then after the shock kinda wears off we just start hilarious laughing. We never made it to wherever we were heading that day. We went back into his house and found something to calm our nerves.
Godspeed my friend. Your smile will be missed

“ I have known Dennis for almost 50 years and in those years he has made me smile and out right laugh every time I talked to him or saw him. Rarely have I seen him angry, but it could and did happen. You couldn't be around him and not be happy. Betty was a very lucky lady and Whitney a very blessed daughter. Dennis loved them dearly. He will be missed and remembered by many. Heaven has accepted a very special man. Miss you Denny....see you in a while and we will laugh again. Becky Sims
