“ Randall, I am so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. I know she raised a great son. Job well done. I am praying for comfort and strength for you and your family. I know my mother sends her condolences also. My mother still talks about you and Mark coming to visit her in the hospital. Know you are thought of.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Randall and the rest of Dolores' family. I visited the Anderson home many times while in high school and always felt welcomed. Her shop has become an icon in downtown Springdale. She was a respected businesswoman in our community.
